

3 Steps and a Bounce

Edited/Arranged by The Solo Committee

words: Susan Mack music: Carey Loomis

Chorus

Three steps and a bounce is a way I can pray
A way I get quiet so I hear what God will say
It's a way I shut the door on anything not good
It's a way I tell God thank you, just like Jesus would.

The first step I take is not to fear
And I know the reason is that God is always here
Nothing in God's allness is scary, mean or bad.
My Mind is God, peaceful thoughts are all I have.

The next thing I do is say a great big "NO!"
A no to any thought that says God's allness isn't so—
To accident or jealousy, to anger, pain, or doubt.
I have God's power to shut all error out.

Chorus

The third step I take is to listen and agree
With all God's angel thoughts coming straight to me.
They tell me I'm safe, I'm sinless, pure and whole.
They tell me that God loves me, that God "restores my soul."

And now my favorite part because it makes me smile—
I get to jump for joy because I'm perfect all the while.
Gratitude and joy help me know my healing's here.
My thoughts are lifted up because I am God's cheer.
