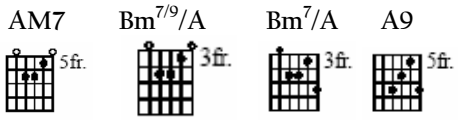
May Christ Be Present

Words/Music: Susan Mack



Intro: AM7 /// AM7 /// Bm7/A /// Bm7/9/A /// Bm7/9/A /// A /// A ///

AM7 Bm7/9/A
May Christ be present at this bridal altar,
Bm7/A A
To turn the water into wine.
AM7 Bm7/9/A
For Christ is Spirit moving deep within you,
Bm7/A A
And with tender healing grace it supplies.

D DM7
May you feel it as the love that can patiently forgive,
Dm7 A
As the kindness that delights to meet each need,
D DM7
As the peace that pours out gentleness and never keeps a score,
Dm7 A
As the self-effacing humble hearted deed.

E A
May you know it as the sinless purity of thought,
E A
As the joy that rests serene in equipoise,
E A
As the wonder of acknowledging each others truest self,
E A
As the freedom of dominion each enjoys.

D DM7
May you rest in its unending strength that never fails to care,
Dm7 A
And accept it as God's good and guiding hand
E A
To your purpose that's unique and that's forever understood.
E A
May you trust the "warfare with oneself is grand."

AM7 Bm7/9/A
May Christ be present at this bridal altar!
Bm7/A A
How could it be otherwise?
AM7 Bm7/9/A
For Christ is Spirit moving deep within you,
Bm7/A A A9
And with tender healing grace it supplies.

© 2004 The Solo Committee
CD: Peace Be Still – Track 12

www.solocommittee.com