

Ye shall know them by their fruits

Words/Music: Susan Mack
Arranged by The Solo Committee
Copyright 2003 The Solo Committee

Enter ye in through the narrow gate
The door of God's onliness
Which cannot allow any death or disease
Life is pure holiness.

Chorus:
Ye shall know them by their fruit
Is their any doubt what an apple tree will bear?
Is their any doubt that God is our Source--
Bearing goodness, bearing truth everywhere.

Wide is the gate and broad the way
That argues distraction and sin.
How arrogant the broadcast of failure and fear.
How steady the Christ sense within.

Beware of false prophets
Those thoughts dressed as innocent sheep
But like wolves of destruction
They consume us till there's nothing to keep.

Come out of your finite sense
Into the realm of Mind's infinity
The light and joy of freedom are immortal here
Life is one grand harmony.